At least four street costumes are necessary—so say even of the smartest tailors who cater to the rich—for a woman to be dressed fashionably this winter: one of light cloth elaborately made, one of plain velvet trimmed with braiding, one of fancy velvet, and at least one costume of the more severe order. This statement is too depressing to be admitted, and it may be understood that in a well-made cloth costume, a happy medium between the too severe and too elaborate, a

COMING OF AGE: The Ministry of Ecclesiastical Affairs

Bishop Littlejohn's stone

We, the Rector, Churchwardens and Vestrymen of All Saints Church Great Neck, Long Island

and State of New York — having, by the good Providence of Almighty God, erected in the said place — a house of public worship, do hereby appropriate and devote the same to the worship and service of Almighty God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, according to the provisions of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, in its Ministry, Doctrines, Liturgy, Rites, and Usages, and by a Congregation in communion with said Church, and in union with the Convention thereof in the Diocese of Long Island

And we do also hereby request the Right Reverend Abram Newkirk Littlejohn D.D. L.L.D. Bishop of the said Diocese, to take the said building under his spiritual jurisdiction as Bishop aforesaid, and that of his successors in Office, and to consecrate the same by the name of All Saints Church.

and thereby separate it from all unhallowed, worldly and common uses, and solemnly dedicate it to the holy purposes above mentioned.

And we do moreover hereby relinquish all claim to any right of disposing of the said building, or allowing of the use of it in any way inconsistent with the terms and true meaning of this Instrument of Donation, and with the consecration hereby requested of the Bishop of this Diocese.

In Testimony whereof, We, the said Rector, Churchwardens and Vestrymen, have caused this Instrument of Donation to have attached to it the seal of our Corporation, and the signatures of the Presiding Officer and Clerk of a meeting duly convened on this twenty first day of October — in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty seven.

Chamber Honors Gary Maier

By William S. Dubois
 Because he has both permanent vision for the community and long character in those that he created, the Great Neck Chamber of Commerce will honor Rev. Gary E. Maier, upon his retirement, at their monthly breakfast meeting, Thurs., Dec. 18, 9 a.m., at Club Hamilton.
 Father Maier has been Rector of All Saints Church for 22 years. He has also been elected in 10 successive three-year terms as commissioner of Parks and Recreation.
 He was influential in the building of the music education on Riverside Avenue, having produced the original concept. He participated in its planning in coordination with governmental agencies, the superintendent of the school district and the stabilization of public support.
 His leadership was instrumental in the construction of several school district facilities including a music and the Parkwood

 His great support working with people is evident in many of his "people projects." He has

Private and Public Association of Great Neck, having served as its president.
 He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Holmwood Executive Center at Southampton College. He served as president of the Long Island Choral Society. He is a member of the executive committee of the Hyde of Jackson Island Health Center and chairman of the abolition committee.
 Father Maier has received numerous awards, including the CDPNY award for his dedication in bringing knowledge and counsel to many of the people of Great Neck. He is the 1986 Hon. of the Year award for Dedication to all the people of the Great Neck Park District and the Brotherhood award given by the Long Service Groups of Great Neck.

Three Communities, One Mission

GREAT NECK EPISCOPAL MINISTRY

Great Neck's oldest religious communities, the Episcopal churches of All Saints and St. Paul's welcomes three Missioners and the addition of a new congregation, St. Joseph's, to the Great Neck area. The Rev. Joseph Pae, The Rev. Charles McCarron, and The Rev. Connie Lorenz have been sent to the Great Neck area by their Bishop, The Rt. Rev. Lawrence C. Provenzano in response to the shifting needs of the communities centered in and around the Great Neck area, and in response to the changing realities facing the Episcopal congregations that are located there. The establishment of this new regional ministry entitled "Great Neck Episcopal Ministry," will create opportunities for the individual parishes to become more vibrant and life-giving to the community of Great Neck. Please contact Fr. Joseph Pae for more information at 516-482-5392 or GEMRevPae@gmail.com.

Great Neck에서 새롭게 사역을 시작하는 한인성공회교회

성공회 뉴욕한인교회가 Great Neck 지역으로 이전하여 새롭게 사역을 시작하게 되었습니다. 배상훈(요셉) 신부님과 미국인 사제 Charles McCarron, 부제 Connie Lorenz가 함께 협력하여 Great Neck 지역의 변화에 맞는 새로운 교회를 위해 헌신하고자 합니다. Great Neck의 All Saints교회와 St. Paul 교회의 협조로 시작된 이 새로운 사역, 'Great Neck Episcopal Ministry'가 Great Neck지역의 공동체에 더욱 활기찬 새생명을 불어넣을 수 있기를 기대합니다. 어린이 미사와 청소년, 젊은 부부 등을 위한 다양한 프로그램들을 곧 시작할 계획이오니 많은 관심과 참여를 바랍니다. 궁금한 사항은 배요셉 신부님(516-482-5392/GEMRevPae@gmail.com)께 문의해주시십시오.
